1. About the Access to Information Act

The Access to Information Act came into effect on July 1st 1983. It provides a legal and enforceable right of public access to the records that are under the control of those federal government institutions that are listed in its Schedule 1. As an institution subject to the Act, the First Nations Financial Management Board (FMB) is under legal obligation to respond to all requests for access to its records that are submitted by members of the public, and the information contained in those records can only be withheld from an applicant if it qualifies for protection under an exemption or an exclusion provision contained in the Act.

2. About this Annual Report

This report, prepared and tabled in Parliament in accordance with section 94 of the Access to Information Act, accounts for the activities of the FMB as they pertain to the administration of the Act for the April 1, 2022 to March 31, 2023 period.

3. About the First Nations Financial Management Board (FMB)

The primary function of the FMB is to ensure that First Nations people, investors, the public, and governments can have confidence in the financial management of First Nation governments and ultimately in their broader systems of comptrollership. More specifically, the First Nations Fiscal Management Act (FMA) establishes the following mandate for the FMB:

- Assist First Nations in developing the capacity to meet their financial management requirements;
- Assist First Nations in their dealings with other governments respecting financial management, including matters of accountability and shared fiscal responsibility;
- Assist First Nations in the development, implementation and improvement of financial relationships with financial institutions, business partners and other governments, to enable the economic and social development of First Nations;
- Develop and support the application of general credit rating criteria to First Nations;
- Provide review and audit services respecting First Nation financial management;
- Provide assessment and certification services respecting First Nation financial management and financial performance;
- Provide financial monitoring services respecting First Nation financial management and financial performance;
- Provide co-management and third-party management services; and

- Provide advice, policy research and review and evaluative services on the development of fiscal arrangements between First Nations' governments and other governments.

4. Administration of the Access to Information Act

The FMB became subject to the Access to Information Act on April 1, 2006. The access to information and privacy (ATIP) program involves three members of the organization on a part time basis, in addition to one consultant who provides technical/professional support as required.

5. Delegation of Authority

The Chief Operations Officer acts as the Access to Information and Privacy Coordinator for the FMB, and there is no Delegation of Authority Order.

6. Interpretation of the Statistical Report for 2022-2023

A copy of the Statistical Report on the Access to Information Act is annexed to this Report.

a. Requests Received under the Access to Information Act

The FMB did not receive any access request under the Access to Information Act during the reporting period.

b. Requests Closed during the Reporting Period

The FMB did not close any access request under the Access to Information Act during the reporting period.

No exemptions or exclusions were invoked, and there is nothing to report in relation to the following aspects: format of information released, complexity of access requests, deemed refusals and requests for translation.

c. Extensions of the Time Limit for Responding to Access Requests

No extension of the time limit for responding to an access request was applied during the reporting period.

d. Fees

The FMB did not collect any application fees during the 2022-2023 fiscal year.

e. Consultations Received from other Institutions and other Organizations

The FMB did not receive any request for consultations under the Access to Information Act during the reporting period.

f. Consultations on Cabinet Confidences

No consultations were undertaken in relation to Cabinet Confidences (section 69 of the Access to Information Act) during the 2022-2023 fiscal year.

g. Comparative Statistics for the Last Five Fiscal Years

The following table provides statistical figures for the last five Fiscal Years:

Details	2018-2019	2019-2020	2020-2021	2021-2022	2022-2023

7. Resources Devoted to the Administration of the Access to Information Act

The costs related to the administration of the Access to Information Act incurred by the ATIP Office totalled $15,000, all allocated to employee salaries.

8. COVID-19

The COVID-19 pandemic had no impact on the FMB's ability to fulfill its legislated obligations as they relate to the Access to Information Act and the Privacy Act.

9. Access to Information Training and Education

No formal training sessions on access to information and privacy were provided for staff during the fiscal year, however, guidance on the impact of the ATIP Acts on the FMB's operations was provided to the management team on a frequent basis.

10. Policies, Guidelines and Procedures

No new policies on access to information and privacy were developed during the reporting period.

11. Key Issues Raised as a Result of Complaints and Investigations

No complaints were made against the FMB during the 2022-2023 fiscal year, and no investigations were conducted by the Office of the Information Commissioner of Canada.

12. Monitoring of the Time to Process Access to Information Requests

The FMB did not implement any new special procedure to monitor the time it takes to process access to information requests.
